Hi Jayun

- I see two logged and missed calls from your number tonight – so the number is correct, but no voicemail
- To the Facebook comment, sorry I don't often read all the comments and I clearly missed yours
- As a curiosity the CLRfry@ email is a bit hit or miss, other non-ABC councillor report similar problems actually, but our first.last name emails seem to work fine

In any event I got your emails and will respond to the other separately

Hi Pete,

Thank you for your email.

I don't see any message from you on Facebook, nor can I find a profile under your name.

When I had to join FB for the city strata, I used my dog's name — Addie Fern. Please find attached a screenshot of the message on your FB page.

I have checked and there are no voicemails from you on any of those dates.

That is very strange. The number I found for you and left messages on is 604-873-7246.

I have attached a screenshot from my phone showing the dates I called.

I just called now and it says that I have called Councillor Pete Fry.

So not sure what's happening there.

I see some emails from you (Jayun // Tofino) to my city email in 2024

Yes, that was me as well and that sidewalk repair has been very welcome.

The email I used to send emails concerning this issue was CLRfry@vancouver.ca

Since I am attaching a couple of things in this email, I will forward my original July 08, 2026 email to you next at your Pete.fry@vancouver.ca address.

Thank you.

I sent you an email regarding an issue that we believe is instrumental to Vancouver citizens' legal rights. P.O.W.E.R. and I are asking for your help. The email was sent July 8. I asked for receipt confirmation but did not receive any. A followup email was sent July 28 as well as a phone call, and a second followup email was sent August 12 as well as a followup phone call. It is now August 24 and I have received no communication from you. We find this concerning. You are asking for our vote in October but we cannot get you, our elected representative, to talk with us. I am confused as to why an issue that appears to be waiving citizen rights is not important enough for you to address. Please check your inbox and respond.

I see some emails from you (Jayun // Tofino) to my city email in 2024 regarding sidewalk repair on 400 block Columbia but nothing since. Since the subject line appears to be city related business, kindly email me at Pete.fry@vancouver.ca

I will look for it.
